

QUEENSLAND TERTIARY ADMISSIONS CENTRE (QTAC)

What is QTAC?

The Queensland Tertiary Admissions Centre (QTAC) QTAC is an organisation in Queensland that helps students apply to universities and colleges. They look at the requirements set by the universities, like JCU, and decide who gets accepted. Then, they send out offers to the successful applicants.

Quick Links:

Home - QTAC

Discover everything you need to know about tertiary admissions in Queensland

Returning to Study

Find out the specific criteria for adult learners applying to tertiary institutions through QTAC.

Application Fees

Get detailed information on the application fees required for submitting your QTAC application.

Regional Preference Scheme

Learn how regional preferences and subject adjustments can impact your QTAC application.

Adjustment Factors - Year 12

Explore the adjustment factors available for Year 12 students applying to James Cook University.

Educational Access Scheme \(EAS\)

Explore the various schemes available and see how they can empower your educational journey.